“ Im really sorry to hear about Kermit passing away. I just now learned of this today.

Him and my aunt barb would give me money when i was a kid. between 10-20 dollars at different times when they would visit me and my mom and dad at our place..

My aunt barb introduced me to mango which i still buy on occasion to this day...

Again super sorry to hear of this

“ Kermit was my uncle and friend. I always enjoyed his sense of humor and most of all his laugh and kind heart. Every time I visited him he always wanted to give me something. It could've been a food item, a drink, or even a coffee cup. He was one of kind. I'll treasure my coffee cups forever. I'll miss you so much!
