“ Were so sorry for your loss, homie was a sweetheart and me and my husband, daughter loved him very much, he was a great friend, co-worker, he worked with my husband jose and US Marble for the last few years and he would come home from work talking bout how homie was always in a good mood, smiling and how he would always brighten everybody's day, even if ut was a bad day. He always asked my husband if he would ask me to make him enchiladas or cook him some food, so i made him a pan of enchiladas and every time i cooked we would always take him some of watever i cooked and it made him so happy and it always made us happy to, we really miss u homie and love you and we will never forget you, R.I.P

“ Rick, Patty & Sherry ...I am so saddened at Larry Wayne's passing. I remember my first time meeting you all and most vividly Larry Wayne. Your mother was keeping him at the kitchen table after all others had finished the meal because he had been talking all through suppertime and had not finished his food - maybe having only taken a small bite. This was a frequent issue as I came to learn. Don't think he was more than 4yrs old at the time. You all came to be like family to me since your aunt Nina and I grew to be like sisters and are still so to this day. Good memories of times spent with your family.

My thoughts and prayers are with all of you Larry Wayne's children/grand-children.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. He was a great man and loved by so many people. The first day he came to work with us, it was like I had known him forever. He was always happy and laughing and making everyone else laugh. You never knew what he might say. He was honest and sincere and the same person no matter who he was around. He would catch me not at my desk and bring cookies or sweets and leave them for me and then peek around the machine and grin from ear to ear when I found it. I will miss him and the happiness he seemed to carry around with him. I will be praying for your family during this time. Luv ya Homie. Miss you my friend.
