“ I have several fond memories of Aunt Loretta. Growing up spending time with Danny and Joey at their house. My aunt was always good to me when I'd stay over.

One good memory is when we had my grandson Brantley she told us to make sure we brought him by her house on Halloween that she made him a treat bag.

A few years ago she gave us a sprout of her elephant ear plants. This year they are bigger than ever at 6 feet tall. Biggest leaf is 33 inches long and 22 inches wide. Thank you Aunt Lorretta.

You will be missed but always loved.

For all the family I pray for comfort and peace of mind. I love you all. God Bless.
