I don't have to write a novel, but I am going to miss you forever. You had such a contagious laugh and smile. The light you brought to me is worth everything. So many people down here love you, I wish you could see it. I'm grateful for the time God gave us. You'll forever be in my heart. I'll be right here to take care of dad along with Tiffany Carroll.... Thank you for what you gave me in the time we had. I love you Luke, cousins by blood but you were so much more than that to me 💙

“ You have been a big part of life since High School. We might have been in & out of each other lives over the years but every time we seen each other, talked to each other it was the same beautiful friendship. We cried when we ran into each other after years of nit seeing one another..I'm going to miss you more than you could ever know. You were such a a light in this world. Your laugh, your spirit & that beautiful smile will always echo in not just my mind & memories. But, in all of ours. Im so grateful you were in my life. That I was able to know you. I love you so much Luke.

“ Luke as I said before you are now flirting in heaven ❤️ I wish you could have seen the love everyone had for you that they are showing you ten times more now!! You have always joked about death and it worried me but years kept going by and I still got to see your beautiful face time just finally stole you away ! You was your daddy's world and still are I promise to visit him on any days I can especially my off days! I know you would with my momma but you both are dancing away in rainbow wings together 🙏💔❤️

I love you Luke. You have taken a piece of my heart up wth you..I can see your beautiful smile as I write this. Working at the nursing home together, everyone loved all your funny stories, kind words, gentleness & care you gave the patients..you are a very special friend to me and I love you so much. It's going to be so heartbreaking going through life without you..I
