“Madeline (Owens) Kerr, Abingdon, Va. Mae and I were very close in age and were close friends, as we were growing up in Clinchco. She died on my birthday, 13 May 2012. At one time, her sister Louise was married to my first cousin Johnny Sutherland. I'm sorry that I didn't hear of her passing in time for me to attend her service. Love and sympathy to all of her family. Madeline Owens Kerr”

“Mae was our neighbor while I was growing up on "Mullins Ridge". I had not seen her in years and when my mother went to the nursing home...I recognized Mae. Seemed like a little piece of home with neighbors together. Mom misses her and like Barbara (also a helper at the nursing home) said ...so does Hershel. Barbara, Bill and Ken...I know you kids will miss mom something terribly. She will be well remembered. Praying for all of you, Carol (Rose) Sutherland”

“I remember many happy memories growing up with mammaw. Most of them revolved around Christmas Eve, as she always had the most amazing Christmas tree in her living room. There were always more gifts than any of us should have been buying, and she and Aunt Barbara used to wrap them with such amazing paper and curling, flowing ribbons. She always gave me socks for Christmas, and I remember she would jump on to me if she saw me wearing shoes without them (Remember the Penny loafers? She hated it when I would wear those without socks.) She also always had candy out on the counter for us grand kids. I remember many times going out and running on the field, drinking from their well (even with the sulfur lol). I am sorry that I can't make the funeral, we are too far away here in Genoa to get there by the time it starts, but my prayers are with all of my family as they go through this difficult time. My prayers are with you too, Mammaw, I pray that God has you cradled in his arms, and that you and Pappaw Jim are reunited in the life to come. His servant, and yours, With love, Brian, Julie, Haley, Hannah, Sarah, and Moira.”

“It was a pleasure to get to know Mae at the nursing home. We sure missed her at Bingo today. Hershel is missing her too, they were good friends and she always asked me to go and get Hershel so they could sit together at Bingo. She will be greatly missed. R.I.P. Mae”
