

Maggie Eileen Coleman

March 1, 1937 - January 6, 2022

Maggie Eileen Coleman was age 84 when she went peacefully with the Lord to her new home in Heaven in the morning hours of Thursday, January 6, 2022.

Maggie was born March 1, 1937, a day she later cherished deeply as God gifted her a granddaughter on her 61st birthday. She was born in Haysi, Virginia to parents Judy and Charlie Bruce Edwards, she was one of 13 children.

In 1973, she married Lon Edward Coleman of Kentucky. Lon and Maggie were each other's first relationship when they were teenagers, and even after deciding to go their own way as adults, they found their way back to each other in the 70s and rekindled their love. Anyone who knows them always considered them true soulmates. Maggie spent nearly 49 beautiful years with the love of her life, who showed her true love and respect every step of the way. She was very proud to be his wife, and he was, and will always be, proud to be her husband.

Maggie was a beautiful, strong, hard-working woman who loved her family dearly. She put her family first, always showing us unconditional love and teaching us many things- from life skills to life lessons. She was so proud of her family; her children, grandchildren, great grandchildren, nieces and nephews, cousins, and friends. There are too many precious memories to even begin to talk about without writing a novel. The memories she helped create and the moments we spent with her will live on in all of those she touched with her beautiful heart and contagious laugh. We will all miss her dearly.

“ Maggie's smile and laughter were infectious! I recall as a young girl visiting Aunt Maggie and Uncle Lon. Their house was always comfortable and welcoming. At family reunions, you didn't have to guess where the fun was. All you had to do was follow the laughter - Maggie's laughter! Her heart was as big as all outdoors, and Lon adored her. My mother misses Maggie and all their "catch up" conversations. We so wish we could attend services to give our condolences, but life has other plans. Know that she is missed, loved, and remembered with warmth and a smile.

“ I was telling my husband, Dave last night that there was a family gathering at my Aunt Sid’s house because she was taking care of Mamaw Coleman and Aint Maggie just had found out that she was pregnant with Renee. She was showing everyone this little ultrasound picture of Renee and oh my goodness she was so excited and happy. Keep in mind that I think Aunt Maggie was in her 40’s and I can still hear her telling us the news. I think she was in shock but still so very happy.

“ I am so glad Mother had Maggie as her roommate at the nursing home. She brightened Mother’s last days. She gave each of us girls a silly name to help her remember us better, there are 6 of us, after all. Well, dearest Maggie I will love you always and think of you often. Eleanor’s Cyndi Lou.

I loved all my aunts & uncles dearly all my life. They're all precious whether living or gone to be with God. I remember how happy it always made Maggie when I'd walk up from Mom & Dad's to see her. I cried my eyes out the last time I saw her & Lon because I knew it was the last time I'd see her. We were both pregnant at the same time back in 1978-79. I'm going to miss her good food & laughter. Everyone please remember her fondly & know she's waiting to see us someday & her suffering is gone. I love you all dearly!
