Marcy is also survived by a host of nieces, aunts, uncles, cousins and friends who loved her.

As I sit here this morning pondering all the things I could say. I know the Lord knows what we need before we even ask. For the last three to four months Marcy has come back into our lives. It's been such a blessing to have her around. We have been able to laugh, cry, and just have fun and make up for forgotten years past.

Her mom and I witnessed her first breath and saw her take her last. She was surrounded by lot of her family during her passing in the E.R. she would have liked that. She was so loved by her Church family, always helping others. We will surely miss her. We wonder at times why our children pass before us. But God knows best. We will see her again in a little while. We serve a wonderful God.

“ Richard and Fern, I wish I had the words to bring you comfort. I am all to aware of the void that is now present in your heart and your lives. I don't understand why our children pass before us. They were God's children to begin with and he entrusts us to love them the way only we know how.... Unconditionally.
My heart aches for you and the family and all of you are in my prayers.
I love you all...
