“ Margaret, my precious sister-in-law, my dearest friend, I miss and will forever love you. We had such good times when our babies were little, and as they grew we had more fun together... we watched after each other, cooked together, enjoyed Granny's big Thanksgiving dinners and Christmas presents together. I will meet you soon in Heaven..give a big hug to John for me...

“ Margret was always sweet to me. She grew up hard her Daddy did best he could. She came spend nights with us when I was little. She made it through all that as well as her brother. Had family of her own. Wish life had been different and we could've been close together. But she knew we all loved her. RIPmy sweet cousin.
