““Mrs. Crabtree was the best math teacher I ever had the pleasure of studying under. I believe she was my teacher for all of my math classes at Clintwood High School (Class of 1968.) She played an integral role in inspiring me to become a math teacher. I am now in my 40th year of being an educator. I wish I had told her this before her passing. She was, indeed, a special person in my life.”

““My heart breaks for you and your families, Carter and Laura. Your Mom was a very special Lady, Teacher and Friend. Countless young people owe her a debt of gratitude for her dedication to her profession and her witness while here amongst us. She now joins my Mom, whom I just lost last month, in their eternal home. We shall see them in a little while. Surely gone but never forgotten.”
