“ My sister Lucille Hoffman and I are devastated by the loss of our little sister Mary, with whom we've laughed, cried and shared so many memories together over the last 60 years... thank you lord, for allowing me to be able to speak with her twice during her last days at UT in Knoxville... and god bless Angie, for all her calls and sharing the last precious moments together. My prayer is for all of Marys children and grandchildren to always remember what a precious lady she was. In loving memory of Mary Ann
