“ In loving memory of Mel, whose light illuminated our lives with unmatched warmth and kindness.

Her spirit resonated with love and compassion, creating a ripple effect that touched countless hearts. In every smile she shared and every act of kindness, she embodied the essence of grace and generosity. While we mourn her absence, we also cherish the beautiful memories she gifted us.

May we find solace in the faith that her spirit continues to guide us, enveloping us in love even as we navigate this profound void. Let us honor her legacy by carrying forward the love she so freely gave. In our hearts, she will forever remain a beacon of hope and an inspiration to live fully and lovingly. May her soul rest in eternal peace, and may we find comfort in the bonds of love she fostered among us. May God Bless her always.

“ *As a kid in elementary aunt Mel was one of my favorite people....
As an adult it wasn't all roses... I do hope she found her faith in her late age in life..*

“ My Aunt Mel was my first best friend. When I think about her, I think about safety, laughter, and the kind of love that lets you be your true, weird little self without ever feeling judged. As a kid, going to her house was like stepping into my happiest memories—full of warmth, comfort, and the kind of fun only she could create.

She spoiled me in all the best ways, not just with things, but with attention, time, and a joy that made me feel completely seen. As I grew older, she became so much more than the aunt who made me laugh—she became a strong woman I looked up to, someone I could turn to for advice, honesty, and encouragement. She always managed to say exactly what I needed, even when I didn't know how to ask for it.

Losing her hurts because she was one of the people who helped shape who I am. But loving her is easy, and remembering her feels like going home. I'll always carry her with me—her strength, her humor, and her firm belief in her faith.

Words will never describe just how much I will miss my Aunt Mel, so for now I will hold her in my heart and patiently wait till we can meet again. I love you Aunt Mel.

“ Farewell Aunt Mel. So many memories of funny jokes, weekends, and vacations all time well spent. Though the hole of your absence is empty and deep, I'll fill it full of those memories and love to cherish and keep. Among our past loved ones treasured and sweet, I know you're among angels as I try not to weep. Forever in my heart there you'll stay, until we meet again some other day. Love you always.

“ Dear Aunt Mel, It is with profound and broken hearts that we acknowledge the life and untimely departure of our beloved Aunt. Her absence has left a silence that is as sharp and sudden as the news of her leaving.

To know Aunt Mel was to be touched by unconditional love. She embodied a truly big heart—one that was never full, always making room for another person, another creature, another cause. She didn't just give generously; she loved without measure, offering comfort, counsel, and laughter with a spirit that seemed boundless. You are not gone from our hearts and will always be remembered. May you be filled with peace & joy in His presence forevermore.
