I'm so sorry for this family and especially you Donald because you lost your companion and best friend. I know exactly how you're feeling because I went through it 13 years ago when I lost Vernon. I still have my bad moments where I miss him but luckily I have an understanding mate that comforts me. I loved the video. It was beautiful! I see you are well blessed with grandchildren. I wasn't so lucky, I only have one but I love her to the moon and back. Let them give you comfort and try to keep your mind busy so you won't have time to think and miss her too much. If you get depression from this don't think you're strong enough to handle it on your own because you're not. I know from experience. Go to Grief Therapy if you need it! Take care of yourself and to the whole family all this can apply to you too and again I'm so sorry!

“ To all of Melissa's family,

Danny and I were so saddened to hear of Melissa's passing. We know she sure suffered here on earth but now is resting in the arms of Jesus, free from all pain. We know she will surely be missed because she left behind a wonderful, loving family and many friends. We pray the Lord will bless and comfort all today and in the days ahead.
