Mayhorn

“ When I was a little girl I would wait for Dad to get off work from the coal mines at the church house beside our home and every evening he would save me a "snack cake" from his lunch and give it to me to eat before we reached the house so Mom wouldn't know I had extra "sweets" before dinner.

His acts of kindness was never-ending

Forever your Coal Miners Daughter, Krystal O'quinn-Mayhorn
