“ We have known Mildred since our early teen years. The first time I met her, she had stopped at my Mom and Dad’s house on the ridge and I remember thinking how beautiful she is, not only in looks but in her heart too. We stayed in touch over the years and each time we visited home, we would see her and, of course, she would make my favorite, her eclairs. They were the best I ever ate. The last time we visited her, she remembered and had made my favorite. That was Mildred .... Always thinking of others wants and needs. She had a heart of Gold and I believe that she is in God’s loving arms. We will always miss her. ❤️🙏 Suzie & John Farmer.

“ I remember the day I met Mildred. She and my grandfather Dan Hay are related and I happened to be visiting my grandparents. She came to visit and she wore a green dress with gold jewelry. She looked as if she had just stepped out of a fashion magazine. As I don't live in the area, I only saw her on limited occasions. It was a gift to see her and to enjoy the "Mean Cream Puffs" she was famous for.
