“ How do you just share a memory when you've got a lifetime of them. We were babies together and grew up together. There's so many things but the best thing to leave you with is this. She loved the Lord and served him. I'm glad that she'll be waiting on me when I get there. We had promised each other that we would walk into Heaven together. I know that my beastie will be waiting just beyond the sunset for me. God needed my friend and she was ready to go I love you with all of my heart and Lila that goes for you too, as well as the rest of the family. May God hold you in his loving arms as you walk through this valley. The comforter will be ever present with you. Holding you in my prayers.
