Born in the small coal camp at Grimslyville, Virginia, the family moved to Clintwood shortly afterward where she lived the remainder of her 85 years.

She attended Sunday School and Worship services at Clintwood Missionary Baptist Church and was saved and baptized there in 1951. She served there in many positions as long as she was physically able. She taught Sunday School and VBS, was active in many of the mission endeavors and especially the ladies mission circles.

She was married to Bob, December 8th, 1956. After graduating in 1957, she devoted the next few years to being a homemaker and mother. She made the decision to attend Clinch Valley College and graduated in 1971. She entered the teaching profession soon after and found it to be her calling. She retired after 30 years and took on the role of a loving grandmother and great grandmother for the remainder of her life.

She enjoyed traveling. Her father's family home in Ceres, Virginia was special to her, as was "the Cabin" in Bath County where she enjoyed looking for yard sales and auctions to feed her growing glassware collection.

Faith, Family, and Friends is a commonly used phrase that we hear, but it truly describes her priorities in life. There is no doubt where her priorities were and where she will spend eternity.
