Misty was a great girl. I knew her from the time we were little and she was always feisty and full of life! She made me laugh anytime I was ever around her. She will be missed.*

“ I remember back when me and Misty were kids and later when we were teenagers. She always made me laugh. I always regretted that we didn't stay in touch because at 1 time we were really good friends. She was always feisty as she could be and had alot of heart. I remember us riding home with a friend of ours from school and she acted like she was in love with him just because she knew I would find it hilarious. If you knew the guy I'm talking about you would know why, but anyway, she had me laughing till there was tears streaming down my face! I can't believe you're gone but I really believe you're in a better place. I talked to you on Facebook about a year ago and you seemed so happy. I can help but feel like the good die young. R.I.P Misty. Say Hi to lefteye for me! I know you are already chilling with her. Lol. Much love to you my friend until we meet again! 🙏🕊️❤️
