“ I feel so blessed to have had the chance to get to know Nadine from Oak Valley where my husband came to live. We became fast friends right away. I would sing the song “Nadine” and she would sing “oh Donna”. Though I will really miss her, I am so happy she is “free”. Free to sit at her Lords feet or to dance or sing before Him with no restrictions!! I Hope Tony was there to greet her. And I have the hope of seeing her again! I love you Nadine!! Though I know your family is sad & missing you, I also know that because of their faith, they are comforted. Rest In Peace my friend until we meet again
