“ *Even though Oland worked for years with my former father-in-law, I was most recently re-acquainted with him at dialysis. Even with the horrible diagnosis, NEVER ONCE did you hear him utter a complaint.....Such a gentle and humble soul. When I was told he wanted to go home and soon found out he did indeed go home before being able to step foot on his earthly property, I was sad but glad at the same time. He will be missed but praise God for His promises, if we know Him, we can be reunited again one day!
Russel, Evonne, Missy and Family.....and Geneva, you are all in my prayers as you face each day with out the precious Oland you loved so dear. May God surround you with His angels and comfort you as only He can.
