“What moves through us is a silence, a quiet sadness, a longing for one more day, one more word, one more touch, we may not understand why you left this earth so soon, or why you left before we were ready to say good-bye, but little by little, we begin to remember not just that you died, but that you lived. And that your life gave us memories too beautiful to forget. (An Irish Funeral Prayer) Love you guys so much! We will miss you Mother. From "that old stringy headed girl"”

“Tincy Carol and family, We would just like to express our sympathy in the loss of your beautiful Mother. You've lost a part of you that will never, and you'll never be whole except with Gods' help on how to deal with it your way. That's what I had to do when I lost my Mother. May God help you today and in the days to come is my prayer. Love, Danny and Karen (Rose) Robinson”
