

Pamela Beasley

October 19, 1960 - June 14, 2024

Pamela Lynn Kendrick Beasley, 63, of Springfield, TN passed away peacefully and entered God's Kingdom on June 14th, 2024. She was born in Goshen, Indiana on October 19th, 1960, to John Paul and Margie Lee Kendrick.

Pam graduated from Clintwood High School in 1978. She found that she enjoyed helping others in need. That love led to her enrolling in college to study nursing. She first became an LPN, continued to be an RN, and finally graduated with honors as a Family Nurse Practitioner. All this was accomplished through hard work and dedication while raising six children and working full-time. She also loved going on medical mission trips, providing care for the underserved in third world countries all around the world.

Pam very much loved her four rescue dogs, Clark, Elwood, Jake and Rex. They brought her many laughs, joy, comfort and love.

Pamela is survived by her husband Joel, daughters Ashley (Seth), Laura, Adrienne and Cresha (Josh), her son

Joseph, her grandchildren Warren, Foster, Everett, and Draxi, her sisters, Shanna Dotson (Brian), Lydia Deel and brother Michael John Kendrick. She is preceded in death by her parents, John Paul and Margie Lee Kendrick and her son, Michael Paul Beasley.

There will be a graveside service for Pam at the Kendrick Cemetery on Saturday, July 13th, at 11:00 am. Tommy Austin will officiate the service.
