

Richard Raymond Laws

June 12, 1965 - May 5, 2025

Richard Raymond "Rosie" Laws, 59, of Coeburn, Virginia, passed away May 5, 2025, leaving behind a legacy of kindness, grease-stained hands, and the ability to make anyone feel like family with just a wave.

Born on June 12, 1965, Rosie was the kind of man who never met a stranger—just friends he hadn't shared a laugh with yet. Though formal schooling wasn't his path, he had a PhD in fixing anything with wheels. His years at Fleming Body Shop weren't just a job; they were where he turned wrenches into wisdom, teaching others that patience and a little elbow grease could solve most problems. When NASCAR was on, you'd find him grinning ear to ear, probably explaining the finer points of engine tuning to anyone who'd listen.

More than his mechanic's intuition, Rosie will be remembered for how he showed up—tools in hand when your car broke down, a joke ready when your spirits were low, and always, always that signature wave. His greatest pride? His children: Jasmine Fleming (Oldest Daughter), Arielle Mullins (Second Daughter), Nicholas Laws (Oldest Son), and Mason Laws (Youngest Son). He leaves behind his loving siblings: Joy Marshall (Sister), Steve Nunley (Brother), Heather Nunley (Sister), and his nieces and nephews: Hunter Nunley, Zack Hays, Robbie Hays, and Wendy Carty. Rosie was reunited with his beloved mother, Phyllis Mitchell; grandmother, Virginia Moore; siblings, Penny Hill, Missy Nunley, and Bill Nunley; and brother-in-law, Darrel Marshall. A celebration of Richard's life will be held at Mullins Funeral Home in Clintwood, Virginia on May 9, 2025, Friends will be received at 11:30 AM with a service to follow at noon, with Edgle Rose officiating. Pallbearers will be Jonathan Fleming, Nicholas Laws, Mason Laws, Michael Mullins, and Travis Plaster. In lieu of flowers, the family asks that you honor Rosie's spirit by helping a neighbor in need or sharing a story about him over a cold beer—his favorite kind of tribute.

Mullins Funeral Home and Staff are serving the Laws Family. Online condolences may be made at www.mullinsfuneralhome.net.
