“ Our deepest Sympathy to all the family. She was a great neighbor to my mother. Mother said she would deeply miss her just knowing she was there at home. I was a recipient of a jar of those delicious pickles. Prayers for all.

“ I'll never forget when Roselle tried to teach me how to milk a cow. She took me up there and was showing me and all of a sudden the cows stomach started jumping every minute or so and I started laughing telling her that the Cow must have hiccups. and I thought she was gonna fall off the store by laughing so hard. She said Becky Honey that's the calf nursing on the other side of the cow. They have to nudge their mommies tit to get more milk to come down. We laughed, and I still sometimes tell that story to people because it's such a fond memory. She told me so many things I was a child then. and she treated me just like one of her daughters, and I felt like she was a second mother to me. I will always have love In my heart, remembering her
