“To all of Tucker's family.I'm so sorry to hear of his passing.I could not attend the funeral due to my work schedule.I will always cherish the memories. I rem.when the first twins were born. Tucker and I went shopping for the twins outfits to wear home. I'm sure Mary already had outfits at the hosp., but he was such a proud Dad he wanted them to wear the outfits home that he picked out.He and Mary helped me so much during my time of crisis.Tucker,mom and I would sat up wee hrs. of the night.He discussed the bible with me and he taught me a lot.Family members please let there be comfort knowing you will reunite with him some day.That is what keeps me going after my best friend "mom" passed away.I miss her dearly everyday.He will be missed by all that knew him.Everyone will cherish memories of him. He was such a joy to be with. God bless you all."

“I want to say that I am deeply sorry for your loss. I will be praying for the entire family during this difficult time.My Mom and I loved him and wanted the best for him, even after he left Saint Louis. I will always miss having him around because I saw him as a father figure, and always will.I will miss our singing of "Catch a Little Raindrop," our talks about fishing and just laughing and having a good time at I will miss you Tucker and I will be there in spirit this weekend."

“My love and prayers to each of you! I can't remember not knowing Roy, always to me gentle and caring man!! I think these pictures in his tribute shows just that! I feel especially close because Roy is my Nephew Bradley's father in law, in turn just so blessed to have Sonja and three wonderful children in common! God bless all!”
