

Ruby H. Boggs

July 18, 1932 - June 14, 2020

Ruby was a loving wife of 68 years to Delbert Boggs. She raised three daughters who were her world, Kathy, Karen, and Kim. She was very involved with her grandchildren and great grandchildren. She always did everything with love and pride. Everything she touched turned to beauty. She was the very definition of a lady. If she knew you she loved you.

Sunday June 14, 2020 God held her heart til its last beat and cradled her soul with her last exhale hugging her into Heaven to be with her husband who was waiting patiently for his bride to join him.

Ruby was preceded in death by her parents, Ruben and Nannie Hayes; her sisters, Beatrice Belcher, Pauline Yates, and Pearl Stout; her brothers, Charlie Hayes and Jimmy Hayes; her grandson, Jonathan Fleming; and her husband, Delbert Ray Boggs.

“ I lived next to Ruby for more than thirty years. I do not remember a time that she wasn't friendly, gentle, and kind to me. Even when I walked up and told her and Deb that I was selling my place that was beside them, Ruby smiled and supported my decision. In my opinion, Ruby was the standard of what a woman should be. As a matter of fact, I never remember an encounter that my cousins Kathy, Karen, and Kim that were not the same way. I'm blessed to to be a part of their family.

“ Ruby was my mother's (Mildred B. Mullins) best friend, and I sometimes think they invented BFF. They shared joys, sorrows, and age with equal grace and dignity. Ruby was the epitome of style, good taste, graciousness, and compassion. After Mother's death, she gladly assumed the role of motherhood for two orphaned girls. She was God's special gift to us, and she set the bar high for Christian life. To her family, I send prayers for comfort, peace, and yes, joy. You had the best; capture the good memories and let them flood your mind daily. Her life is worth repeating in our memories. I also send my love to all!
