“ Sadra, Patty and family, we were saddened to hear of your mother’s passing. I remember her from the days of Sullivan’s Grill and had met her and Ira at JT’s Football games at Powell Valley. You may remember me as the Purity Bread boy from Big Stone Gap. You and your family are in our thoughts and prayers. The Lord Bless and Keep You close to Him and to each other. With our deepest sympathy!!!

“ Sharon, Sadra and family, Suzzie and I extend our heart felt love for all of you. Your mother was a special person. I remember going out of town with your father once for a couple of days and when we returned your mother had built an addition on to the house. They were both special people. We had to be out of town this week or we would have been there. Henry and Suzzie Vanover

The first night I ever spent away from home was at Aunt Stellas, and when I couldn't go to sleep with Lillian upstairs, I crawled over into bed with the older girls and they read a story book... fell asleep just fine!!!! May have been 6 yrs or so! 😊?

Wish I could be each of you, how I would LOVE that!!!
