“ My memories of Sam go back to our childhood and he was known as Sammy to me. In our later adult years, I was able to reestablish a relationship with Sam and his loving wife Jeannie. My husband and I were also able to meet the rest of his family, his three daughters and son, 'Little Sam'. I will always be grateful I was blessed with the opportunity to reunite with Sammy and his family. He will be missed by many. May God bless and comfort his family during their indescribable loss.

*Our sincere condolences,
Bill and Janice (Fleming) Lambert*

“ I am just devastated to learn about the passing of Sam Fleming. There was no better person on earth than Sam. I will never forget the times that me and my husband got to talk to him at the Four Way when we came home on vacation. But most of all I will always be so thankful and grateful to him and his wife for being to good to my Mom, Sada Sutherland after losing my Dad. Every year Sam came at Xmas to bring Mom a fruit basket filled with so many different things and my Mom just loved him and his wife so much. His kindness brought so much joy and happiness to Mom. To me and my family Sam was like an angel from heaven. He spread joy to so many other people as well. I send my prayers and blessings to all his family. There will never be another Sam Fleming. We will always remember you in our hearts.
