“Rosalie, you have always been a dear friend to me since high school at Haysi, we went 5years to school together. I never knew your son Scott, but he was born in Madison Heights Michigan the same place my son was born, my son was born Oct 8,1975. I am sure from reading his obituary that he was a wonderful son to you and well talented. So sorry for you loss, don't know how I would feel to lose my son like that, my heart goes out to you my sweet friend. I will be praying for you that God will find a way to give you peace during all this, it has to be the hardest thing you will ever have to go through. Always remember God is in control and everything that happens after death is up to God and you will see your son again someday when we leave this world to go home to our eternal home, Scott will be waiting on you there and God must have needed him there more than he needed him here so we have to accept what God has decided to do with us, even though it don't make it any easier to do, he only loans our children to to us for a short period of time some of us may have our children for a life time and some of us for a short period but yo can better believe he is in the hands of a just God right now and happy where he is at. God bless you always my friend, I will continue praying for you in the days and months to come for you to keep all the good memories you have made with Scott to always be on your mind. Love you Sister in the lord, Dorothy a friend always”
