“ Sharon and Carter Boyd were truly amazing individuals. No one will fully understand their sacrifice and investment in others until we reach heaven. I took the family last December to visit with Sharon and Buddy. We had a great visit reminiscing about the days of my youth, Carter, and how much my kids had grown. I was the 13th kid to come through their home at a very very difficult time in my life grades 9th - 11th. They welcomed me with loving arms and a commitment of Christ center love. Sharon worked diligently day after day to maintain a quality home environment, especially on Sundays as we would always set at the dinner table around a wonderful meal she had prepared. She worked at Hardee's for a number of years on the early morning shift. Her commitment to being there at 4 am was a great example of hard work, dependability, and commitment to your employer. I took note of her example and thought of it often, I remember often Carter expressing his appreciation for how hard she worked there and at home. When I came into their home she took me shopping for new clothing, When I was invited to the prom my junior year she was there every step of the way. She loved going to church, singing with the Sunny Valley Gospel Singers, attending the annual gospel music festival at the breaks interstate park. I know she prayed earnestly, loved her family, and tried to make an impactful difference in every kid that came through their home. I know she loved and adored Carter and they provided a wonderful example to all of us of what a loving home should be like. They gave grace and patience to their differences, found the good in every situation, and laughed and loved by always looking after each other. Sharon and I had several good visits through the years after Carter's passing. I'm grateful she was cared for by the love of her brothers and Buddy these past few years. Sharon was a wonderful woman and spent a life well-lived. Our family prayers are especially for Buddy as I know he has lovingly cared for his mother. Thank you, Lord, for people like Sharon who have exemplified the nature of your character. Love and goodness.
