Sherry was a bit older than me, 11 years, I think. When I was young in grade school and preschool I adored my big sister. I thought she was the prettiest girl. I carried this pic of her in my purse. I'd tell school chums that she was my big sister. I don't think I told you that, sissy.

“ I remember Sherry as she was when I was a child. Rather quiet, but always loving, with a gentle spirit & heart, and a genuine concern for others. She will be greatly missed by those whose lives she touched. God now has another angel.
