“ I have just found out about Shirley Caldwell's passing. Shirley and her husband Tony have been neighbors to my Mom and Dad for years. Today is another very sad day for me. Nobody called me about her passing so I could have come home. Shirley has always been a one of a kind person. She fixed my moms hair for years and years that they were wonderful to Mom and Dad. Shirley would bake a cake and call for Mom to come up and get her a piece. I knew she had been sick and I called them a few weeks ago and spoke to Randal to see how Shirley and Tony were doing. I can't help from wondering why my so called neighbors did not call and let me know about Shirley. I will miss you so much Shirley as will so many others. You have always been such a special person to all of our family. When God sent angels from heaven he sent you for sure. I will miss you so much.
