“Im still at a loss for words, they just dont come so easily...Well No Gilr could have had a better GOD Father than Silas...He was one of a Kind and they broke the mold when he was made...I Loved him like the Uncle I never had. There is nothing he wouldnt have done for me if I had ask...This seems Like a Dream...I had my very own room at his first double wide...I loved it...he treated me like a Daughter...I can think of so many memoreis that I will always get to keep. Many Prayers for the Family...he was the Glue that held everything together...Fred Im so sorry..I cant tell you enough how sorry I am and how much I love you...I will always be here for you!! I can remember your birth...I never saw a man so proud to have a son!!!...Darlene, I know you needed more time..but At least you got to have a little time and can treasure those memories...I will never ever ever see a New Chevy Sprots car roll off the production line that I wont think of you Silas....I couldnt wait till yours would come in so you could stop and show her off to me...and take me for a ride....Im sorry I didnt get in that last Camaro to fly at warp speed down the road with you....I will miss you...and I love you....ANGELA”

“Craig and I are so saddened about Silas's passing. Whenever we would pass by, he would be sitting down at the door of his garage. The community has lost another friend. We will be thinking of the family during this sad time.”
