“Joleane was a generous person. Years ago when we became neighbors, she gave us a housewarming gift and she was considerate in giving our children little gift bags on occasions. We will also treasure the Christmas ornaments she made us one year. Recently while visiting her she gave me two baby quilts and an armload of fabric because I mentioned I was sewing some things for the Samaritans Purse Christmas Shoebox Ministry, and because of her gift a little child in another country will be benefited. Joleane will be missed and we will pray for her family and George. By her conversations I could tell she thought so much of them.”

“George, Clyde and I was saddened to hear of Joleane's passing. Joleane and you were the greatest neighbors any one could have. I have a lot of good memories to cherish of Joleane.May God be with you during this difficult time. Joleane was blessed to have you to take care of her during her sickness. If we can do anything to help you let us know.”
