“ Oh my sweet, precious dad. God sure knew what he was doing when you were chosen to be my dad. He only let us borrow you for a little while but, that little while was so, so precious. You were the best husband to mom, the best dad to us and the best grampy to these sweet grandbabies. We all love you so very much and miss you just the same. You watched me take my first breath and I held your hand when you took your last. Heaven gained the most precious angel on July 11 and I know you will be flying high in your camouflage wings, as Peydon said. I will love and miss you until my last breath. When it is my time, you better be at heaven's gate with your arms wide open and ready for a big ole hug and tons of forehead kisses! I will see you later dad.....

“ Aunt Diana, Cindy and Maranda,
I am so sad to hear of Uncle Tom’s passing. I have such fond memories of visiting you when you lived in Michigan and even as a little girl, I recognized how much my mom cherished her relationship with her cousin Tom and his sweet, perky wife Diana, whom she called “Dian-ey” :)
Sending you much love and prayer - know how much he loved you all!!!

“ Uncle Tom was one of a kind. A man to which all men should aspire to be. He was always a voice of reason. "You pick your friends, you pick your troubles Bethie" I have carried those words with me my whole life. My life has certainly been blessed to call him family. My thoughts and prayers are with each of you, not just today but in the coming days and weeks. I love you all.

“ I am so Thankful i got to know you Tom you were like my second Dad and definitely telling me like it is as i was young and dumb . You had wise words and a funny joke to tell . It is always a bitter pill to know i haven't seen or spoke to you and the rest of the family for so long and now it is too late .. They always warn you don't wait because we never know and we will regret . I will regret not thanking you for being a good human to me and Pete and We will remember and miss you for life . “ I lived next door to Tom for nearly 30 years!

He was a kind and loving neighbor and was always ready to help his community in any way possible. Be it lending a tool needed for a job or using his welding skills to repair something or just a kind word!

Among the finest people you could hope to ever know!!

With love to Diane and family.

Rest in peace sir!!

“ Tom was a fellow comrade in arms who continued his service to country/community as an officer of the VFW and a leader in his church. He volunteered cooking meals for the church and teaching youth Sunday school. I still remember his dedication to serve on the honor guard detail carrying his rifle in one hand and an oxygen bottle in the other. I was truly blessed with the opportunity to serve in the VFW with him and he will be greatly missed. This is a huge loss, prayers for the family.
