

Valley Skye Stevens

May 18, 2026 - June 17, 2026

Valley Skye Stevens was welcomed into this world with endless love on May 18, 2026, to Gabriel and Ashtene Stevens. On June 17, 2026, Valley, our precious blessing, was reunited with Jesus.

“Before I formed you in the womb, I knew you.” — Jeremiah 1:5

Our perfect baby girl left this world far too soon, but the impact of her life cannot be measured by the number of days she spent with us. Though her time here was brief, her story is one of absolute victory, complete healing, and infinite love.

Valley was our quiet miracle, a fierce light in the center of darkness. She was our little piece of the sky, grown right in the middle of our hardest valley. She was cherished beyond words and will be loved beyond a lifetime. Valley leaves behind a legacy of hope and healing, a family forever changed, and a love that is completely unbreakable. She is our reminder that even the smallest lives can reveal the greatest grace.

In addition to her loving parents, Valley is the adored little sister of Kynleigh, Abel, Emersyn, Hunter, Ellie, Graham, and Londyn. She was deeply loved from the very beginning and will forever remain a treasured part of their lives and hearts.

She is also survived by her paternal grandparents, Karen and Kevin Layne, and Donnie and Patsy Stevens; and her maternal grandparents, Sabrina and Jerry Walker, and Kathy and John Barnett. She is fiercely loved and deeply missed by her family and by everyone who witnessed the beautiful story she wrote simply by being here.

She was preceded in death by her beloved brother, Milo Boone Stevens, and we find comfort in knowing that they are together in perfect peace and everlasting love.

While our arms ache to hold her, we find comfort in knowing that she is now at peace, forever wrapped in perfect love. Her life, no matter how brief, was filled with purpose, beauty, and unconditional love. We will carry her strength with us always, and spend the rest of our lives looking toward the sky, knowing our girl is there.

Valley Skye — forever loved, forever missed, forever our daughter.
