

Velma Powers Hill Beverly

February 25, 1924 - January 16, 2018

“Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called the children of God”
Velma Powers Hill Beverly, age 93, went peacefully home to be with Jesus on Tuesday, January 16, 2018. Velma was born in Clinchco, Virginia. The majority of her life she lived in Clintwood, Virginia. She was a loving daughter, wife, sister, mother, grandmother, great grandmother, and great great grandmother. She was truly a blessing to everyone that knew her. She always loved life and more importantly, she loved Jesus. Her favorite saying was “Everybody is good for something”. She was truly a peacemaker and the most important thing in her life was her family. She was a 1975 graduate of Clintwood High School and attended Clinch Valley College. She was preceded in death by her first husband, Willie Marvin Hill; her parents, Wedford and Bessie Powers; her son, William Frederick Hill, her four brothers, Cebert, James, Jarius, and Jack Powers; and her two sisters, Edna and Veura.

Survivors Include:

Husband: Samuel Reuben Beverly

Children: Judy Wright, Haymon Hill and wife, Vickie, Susan Johnson, Vickie Fleming and husband, Doug, Rodney Hilland and wife, Becky

Grandchildren, great grandchildren, and great great grandchildren

Sisters: Burette Dye and Linda Walton

Several nieces and nephews
