2 Corinthians 5:8

We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord.

Velvet Lynn Taylor, age 61 passed away Tuesday, January 23, 2024 in Clintwood, Va. She was born July 14, 1962 and was the daughter of the late Cassie and Edith Dooley. She was preceded in death by her parents, her sisters Martha Sue Rose and Brenda Carol Mullins and brothers Casey Dooley and Arthur Dolley. A lifelong resident of Dickenson County, she was a loving Mother, grandmother, and friend to all. She served her community for many years with McClure River Rescue Squad and Fire Department.

In her last days she resided in and served as president of the resident council of Heritage Hall of Clintwood.

Survivors include Daughters Nakeisha Vance and husband John Vance of Clinchco, Kasey Schoolfield of Taylors, S.C., 11 grandchildren and sisters Janice Dingus, Joyce Baldwin and Mary Yates.

Celebration of Life will be held Saturday February 03, 2024 at 3:00pm at Clinchco Fire Department.

Mullins Funeral Home and Staff are serving the Taylor family. Online condolences may be made at www.mullinsfuneralhome.net “ Velvet was a very special friend of mine, when we were younger. We had many good memories together that I will never forget. It's not been very long ago that I was at Heritage Hall Nursing Home, and I saw Velvet. We had such a wonderful conversation about the good old days. Praying for the family!!
