“ Kay & I had a special cousin bond. She would always tell me, thanks for making me laugh when I need it. The last time that I shared some time with her at the end of Dec. before she got sick, She was the one that cheered me up that time. Kay always knew in person or on the phone if I was having a bad day. That day I visited her she sang me a "pop" song to cheer me up. She was so happy, eating pizza her favorite, slurping the strawberry milkshake (she always told me to get for her on my way there lol) unwrapping Christmas gifts together. I honestly can say that was probably the best day I ever had with her in my life. I want to remember that day always! I love you Kay! See you one day again & we can sing together in Heaven!

Will miss you,
Elly Sutherland
