“ I will miss my buddy so much...When we got to fellowship at church...I would go to him...he would reach his hand out to shake hands...I'd just put my hand on my hip give him my Virgil look...he would laugh and give me a big big hug...I will always remember you Mr Virgil...Loads of love from Tyson and me

“ Virgil will be missed deeply. I am so glad we met the Rose family on Top of the World. What a blessing they have been through the years.

A recent memory I have is I remember playing his homemade Aggravation game (speaking of him being crafty 😊) and watching him laugh at us trying to win.

I'm grateful and thankful for his testimony and deep love for God and his family. I remember someone asked him during a check in with a previous sickness What do you know? his reply Jesus Christ and Him Crucified!

Pat and family, Our hearts are saddened to know we have lost another member of our dear family. The last time we were together was at another sad day of Earle's funeral. As we sat in a parch swing at Orpha's, Grayson lightened the mood by remembering many happier times we had all enjoyed. He will be missed by us all. Sending my prayers and best wishes.
