

Viva Plaphene Peak

January 14, 1934 - February 15, 2011

With a sad and broken heart, I will attempt to write an obituary of a wife, mother, grandmother and sister. Viva Plaphene Peak, daughter of the late John A. and America Elizabeth Mullins. Viva was born on January 14, 1934, in Dickenson County, Virginia.

“My sympathies to the Peak Family. I remember Viva so well from when I was in high school. She was a great supporter of our band and was often with us on our band bus. She would always help us french braid our hair before we got to competitions. She was a great encourager for us. May God provide you all comfort as you grieve your loss.”

DE

“Clyde and Family, I am so sorry to hear of Viva's passing. Our prayers are with you all. Mom (Ruth Mullins Quesenberry) wanted me to let you know that she is very sorry but due to health issues, she doesn't think she will be able to attend but her prayers are with you all. If there's anything we can do, just let us know. Denese Mullins Osborne Billie and Ruth Mullins's daughter”
