We hadn't known each other long, but I felt like I had known you my whole life. I told Jeremy it must mean in a former life we were something, Because from the first time we met, there was a connection I can't explain. Talking with you was definitely great therapy, I felt so comfortable, like whatever we shared with each other stayed right there, Thank you for that. I hate your life here on earth was cut so short.

You will truly be missed. I'm so thankful we crossed paths when we did, and was able to share all that we did. It was nice having someone who could relate to me with so many different things like you did. I hope and pray you knew how much you truly touch me. I never got the chance to tell you and I hate it had to be this way, but thank you. There's a place in my heart with your name on it. Until we meet again my friend, spread your wings and fly.
